in Mrs. Panthurst's visit.

"We are in no sense militants, and not in sympathy with Mrs. Panthurst's ideas," she said. "She, moreover, came to this country entirely on her own initiative and without any invitation from the Woman's Suffrage Party in America. We deplore the action of the United States government representa-tives, however. It gives Mrs. Pank-hurst a lot of undue notoriety and advertising, without benefitting the real work of our society in the least."
